

Country	Programmatic Area (2017)	Activity	Partner	Expected Outcome
Nicaragua	Demand generation	Expansion of the Operational Research - Action Research on the causes of low vaccination coverage in the prioritized municipalities	WHO	Vaccination coverage improves in prioritized municipalities where actions are taken on problems that affect the program from a service offer perspective.
Nicaragua	Demand generation	Training of health unit and municipal staff to build skills in EPI indicator analysis	WHO	Vaccination coverage improves based on the local analysis of indicators and the identification of strategies implemented to reach the unvaccinated or undervaccinated.
Nicaragua	Country planning Management and Monitoring	Updating and training of the EPI standards	WHO	The updated standards have been disseminated and, together with the trained personnel, are contributing to compliance with the national immunization policy.
Nicaragua	Data	Implementation of georeferencing in EPI indicators	WHO	Georeferenced vaccination coverage indicators provide spatial display of the high, medium and low risk districts.
Nicaragua	Data	Follow-up and monitoring of sentinel surveillance of the new vaccines	WHO	Nicaragua generates information for the global sentinel surveillance network of bacterial pneumonias and meningitis and of rotavirus
Nicaragua	Health System Strengthening	Monitoring and supervision of the standards for comprehensive care for children, including vaccination	WHO	Standards for Child Growth and Development Monitoring and Promotion are implemented.
Nicaragua	Demand generation	Implementation of community ABC Book and community monitoring system for immunization	UNICEF	Increased community participation in to activities of PAI for identification of children unvaccinated from the most far away and vulnerable communities in prioritized municipalities.
Nicaragua	Demand generation	Elaborating of guideline of Survey and Control of Growth and Development (VPCD) including immunization activities	UNICEF	Reduced missed opportunities by linking PAI's activities with VPCD's activities and others relevants services.